

A Flood of God's Grace

Love Your Way to Peace in Your Home

Leader's Notes

I. Family relationships are important.

- Satan has attacked relationships, including family, with strife.
- We are in the days of heaven on earth..
 - Deuteronomy 11:21, "That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the Lord swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth" (KJV).
- Kenneth Copeland's prophesy—"This is the year of great grace."
- Acts 4:33, "And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all" (NKJV).

II. Family matters.

- You should give your family a high priority in your life.
- Ministers should be watchful over the peace of their families.
- Strife is Satan's weapon.
 - James 3:16, "For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work" (KJV).
- Focus on change within yourself before looking for change in others.
- God can bring change for good to any situation.

III. Expect a flood of grace.

- Oral Roberts told Kellie Copeland Swisher when she was a child—"Not a trickle, not a stream, not a river, but a flood."

A Flood of God's Grace

- Great grace—wonderful grace—powerful grace—abundance of grace.
- Receive this flood of grace to make big changes in your life.
- The year of great grace brings changes to the point that things will not even look at all like they did before.
- Position yourself to receive what God wants to do in your life.
- Sin cannot stop God's grace.
- Where there is a large amount of sin, even more grace is there.
 - Romans 5:20, "God's law was given so that all people could see how sinful they were. But as people sinned more and more, God's wonderful grace became more abundant" (NLT).
- One definition of grace—God looking at you as though you were Jesus.
- Adjust your eyes to see yourself from God's perspective.

Quote From Kellie Copeland Swisher

Take what's broken and messy, and present it to the Lord. He will make something amazing and wonderful and even better than you thought.

Confession

My family is guarded and kept safe by the powerful love of God. We refuse strife in any form, and we practice loving God and one another. We live in the days of heaven on earth, and in the year of great grace!

In the Name of Jesus Christ, Amen.
