

“I Will Restore”

“Now, I’ll do the same for you,” saith the Lord, “I’ll do the same for anybody. I came to destroy the works of the devil, and I will destroy everything the cankerworm has stolen from you, I will absolutely put it away. I will restore, I will restore, I will restore. Redemption and restoration is what I do. And if you’ll believe Me for it, if you’ll begin to confess it every day, if you will begin to call it over your life, over your family, over your bank account, and over your physical body and over your mind, I will restore!”

Hallelujah!
