

The Year the Lord Has Designed

“There’s never ever been a year in the history of heaven and earth like this year; for this is the year that I designed. This is the time that Israel should have walked in the Promise Land. This is the way it should have been in the Garden of Eden—growing, and growing, and growing, and growing, and strengthening, and becoming stronger with My presence becoming more real,” saith the Lord.

—Prophecy given by Kenneth Copeland
December 31, 2007
New Year’s Eve Service