The Image of God in You

So you want to make some changes in your life. Maybe lose some weight. Or get your finances in shape. You're geared up, excited, ready to shake those habits that have been haunting you and step into God's best.

You make some resolutions. Turn over a new leaf....

Then, all too often, something strange begins to happen. Your determination wanes. And, as your new leaf grows, it begins to look alarmingly similar to your old leaf!

Suddenly, you're back where you started. Nothing has changed and you begin to doubt that it ever will.

That's happened to all of us more times than we'd like to admit. But, if you're a born-again child of Almighty God, it doesn't have to happen to you again. God has given you the principle and the power to make permanent changes in your life and circumstances.

Once you learn how, not only can you turn over a new leaf—you can grow a whole new tree!

But first you have to understand an important principle—a principle that's been in action since the beginning. It's the principle of the "inner image."

God Himself gives us the first lesson about it in Genesis 1. There we can see Him using the principle of the inner image to create the earth.

God didn't just come upon Creation by accident and say, "Well, what do you know! There's light!" No, He first had a desired end result (an inner idea, or image, of what He wanted to create) and then said, "Light be!" and light was.

God didn't have any problems making the changes He wanted to make, did He? He took the principle of the inner image, added faith and the power of His words, and instantly, darkness was changed to light.

“But Brother Copeland,” you say, “that was God. Surely you don’t expect me to try to act like God!” I most certainly do. Ephesians 5:1 says, “Therefore be imitators of God [copy Him and follow His example], as well-beloved children [imitate their father]” (The Amplified Bible).

If we’re going to imitate our Father, we’re going to have to put the principle of the inner image to work, too.

Let me warn you about something though. Don’t waste your time sitting around trying to dream up a positive inner image on your own. That’s nothing more than positive thinking—and while it’s better than negative thinking (or not thinking at all), it will eventually fall flat.

You need to use the Word of God as the basis for your inner image and the words you speak because it is filled with God's power. And if you mix that Word with faith and speak it out, it will change your life and circumstances.

Think again about Creation. God wanted light. So He said, "Let there be light" (Genesis 1:3). The words He spoke were directly related to His inner image. He used His words to get that image from the inside to the outside.

Words are powerful. They are containers that can carry faith and love—or fear and hate. Words are so important, they can determine our eternal destiny. Romans 10:9-10 says that if you confess the Lord Jesus and believe that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved. Proverbs 18:21 says that death and life are in the power of the tongue. And you are the one who chooses which of them you speak.

In fact, this is the part of you and me that is so like God. We have the unique privilege to choose and speak words.

Just think about the power you have to Speak words! No other creature has that power. You may say, “Well, angels can speak.” Yes, but they don’t have the power to choose what they say. They say what they are told to say.

Lucifer once chose his own words, but it doomed him forever. He said, “I’ll be like God and exalt my throne above the most high God.” (See Isaiah 14:12-14.) But he didn’t have the right to choose those words.

Words can destroy—or they can create. They can project an inner image to the outside world. Once you understand this, you’re well on your way to putting the principle of the inner image to work in your life. But there’s one important question we still haven’t answered.

What do you do if your inner image is all wrong?

That’s a problem all of us face. You may be struggling to be thin while your inner image of yourself remains fat. You may be working to be a winner while seeing yourself as a loser.

How do you change that?

With the Word of God—and only with the Word of God!

You see, words not only release the creative force of faith, they also produce images. When you hear the word dog, the letters D-O-G don't run across your consciousness, do they? No, you immediately form a picture in your mind of a dog. You may even think of your dog. But if you heard “big, black, mean dog,” you would get a totally different picture in your mind. Words paint pictures in our minds.

That's why, in Joshua 1, God told Joshua not to let the book of the law (God's Word) depart out of his mouth. God told him to meditate in it day and night. Why? “...That you may observe and do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall deal wisely and have good success” (Joshua 1:8, The Amplified Bible). To observe means “to see.” God was telling Joshua that if he would meditate on the Word day and night, he would build an image of that Word inside him. And Joshua needed that image. He would be leading an entire nation and step into the shoes of a man who'd literally been with God Almighty.

Joshua couldn't afford to see himself as a loser or even as simply an ordinary man. He had to become what God intended for him to be by meditating the Word of God. And God promised him that the result would be wisdom, prosperity and good success. The Word of God would change what was happening on the inside and the outside of him.

It's important to understand that we're not just talking about improving your self-image. We're talking about getting your inner image to line up with the Word of God.

The Word of God is the key. So let's take a closer look at that Word.

John 1:1-4 tells us that "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.”

If all things were made by Him—and the Word is God—then I believe we have license to say that all things were made by the Word. Hebrews 11:3 says, “Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.” Everything that is, everything that has been and everything that will be was brought about either directly or indirectly by the Word of God.

If, as the writer of Hebrews says, the things we see were not made of things which do appear, what were they made of? Faith! Verse 1 says that “Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”

God’s words are not empty like men’s words. They are packed with faith. In fact, God’s faith is the energy in the Word that gives it the power to bring itself to pass.

In Isaiah 55:11, the Lord says, “So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.” God’s Word is a living thing. It is alive with God’s own faith.

Just as God’s faith energizes His Words and causes what He speaks to come into being for Him, the faith He has given you, mixed with His Word, can create new realities in your life.

Some believers have tried to tell me that they just don’t have any faith. But that’s not true—not if they’ve been born again. According to Romans 12:3, God has dealt to every man (and that includes you) the measure of faith.

Now, by the power of the Holy Spirit, you have faith inside you as a born-again believer. So when your inner image matches God’s Word, your faith can produce the end result that God desires. In this way, you become a co-laborer with Him, bringing His will to pass on this earth.

Stop and think about that for a minute. Co-laborers with Almighty God! You need to realize that once you begin to put these principles and this power to work in your life, you're going to run into some heavy resistance from Satan. He's going to do everything he can to stop you because, as a co-laborer with God, you become his greatest enemy. Because he understands the power of the inner image, Satan is going to work hard to distort that image and uproot the Word of God that's been planted inside you.

Jesus Himself warned us of Satan's tactics in the parable of the sower, Mark 4:14-20:

The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; and have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

Notice that the Word is the subject of this parable, not the ground in which it is sown. Notice also that persecution and affliction arise for the Word's sake. Satan has to stop the Word from taking root in your heart. He has to stop you from cultivating an inner image of the Word. Once you have that inner image, nothing can stop you from receiving from God. You are then fully persuaded that what God has promised, He is able also to perform. So Satan must try to stop you before you become fully persuaded.

Remember, the Word has the power in itself to bring itself to pass. Once you get in agreement with the Word, Satan can't stop it from coming to pass in your life. It's the Word he's after, not just you! And he only has five things to use to steal the Word from you—persecution, affliction, the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches and the lusts of other things.

Satan uses these five things to try and get your mind off the Word and onto natural things. And there's only one way to overcome his methods—follow the advice the Apostle Paul gives in 2 Corinthians 5:7 and “walk by faith, not by sight.” Even when your body says you are sick, you can believe that you are healed. How? By focusing your spiritual eyes on the Word of God that says, “By His stripes ye were healed” (1 Peter 2:24).

Just like Joshua, keep meditating on the Word of God day and night until it wells up as truth inside you and comes spilling out of your mouth in the form of faith-filled words!

Once you have the same inner image God has, you can be confident that your body is going to change. It has no choice! It has to line up with God’s Word.

“...Look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal” (2 Corinthians 4:18). Temporal things, like sickness and disease, are subject to change. However, the Word is eternal and not subject to change. An inner image of the Word of God spoken in faith will cause the natural (or temporal) things to change to match that inner image.

Visualize the Word as the paint and the Holy Spirit as the artist. As you read and meditate on the Word of God, the Holy Spirit takes the Word and paints an accurate picture of God on the canvas of your heart. With that clear image inside you, release your faith with your words, just as God did, and that which is in you then becomes reality on the outside. Your faith produces the end result God desires.

God has given you everything you need. He has made you a spirit being and given you a mind and an imagination. He has given you the faith and His Word with which to frame the accurate picture. He's also given you the Holy Spirit, who is the power to bring God's Word to pass in your life.

So get into the Word. Let it begin to shape the images within you. Then speak it out in power and faith. Soon you'll find you can make those long-awaited changes in yourself and your circumstances. You'll not only be able to turn over a new leaf, you'll be able to grow a whole new tree! A tree of goodness and life, bursting with the fruit of the spirit. A tree that springs from the image of God in you!

Prayer for Salvation and Baptism in the Holy Spirit

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Your Word says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21). I am calling on You. I pray and ask Jesus to come into my heart and be Lord over my life according to Romans 10:9-10: "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." I do that now. I confess that Jesus is Lord, and I believe in my heart that God raised Him from the dead.

I am now reborn! I am a Christian—a child of Almighty God! I am saved! You also said in Your Word, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: HOW MUCH MORE shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?" (Luke 11:13). I'm also asking You to fill me with the Holy Spirit. Holy Spirit, rise up within me as I praise God. I fully expect to speak with other tongues as You give me the utterance (Acts 2:4). In Jesus' Name. Amen!

Begin to praise God for filling you with the Holy Spirit. Speak those words and syllables you receive—not in your own language, but the language given to you by the Holy Spirit. You have to use your own voice. God will not force you to speak. Don't be concerned with how it sounds. It is a heavenly language!

Continue with the blessing God has given you and pray in the spirit every day.

You are a born-again, Spirit-filled believer. You'll never be the same!

Find a good church that boldly preaches God's Word and obeys it. Become part of a church family who will love and care for you as you love and care for them.

We need to be connected to each other. It increases our strength in God. It's God's plan for us.

Make it a habit to watch the Believer's Voice of Victory television broadcast and become a doer of the Word, who is blessed in his doing (James 1:22-25).
